THE BULL DOG

VOLUME III

Published by the Class of Nineteen Thirty Five

We have fulfilled

The goal for which every Class must strive

FOREWORD

Publishing this memory book
Has been our delight
Its main purpose being
To bring memories to sight.
So don't throw it away
But handle it with care;
When reading it, think of H. H. S.
And the pleasant times had there.
We don't trust your memory—
It will decay with age—
So this book will aid you
As you turn page after page.
You'll think of the good times,
Maybe a few sorrows too,
But mostly of your dear teachers
Whom you thought so unjust to you.

THE STAFF.

DEDICATION

Every pond has a stream
That causes its real being;
Even the near-sighted man
Has glasses to aid his seeing.
Every light has a source
That causes it to glow;
All winds have a great force
That causes them to blow.
Every automobile has an engine
That causes them to run;
Every circus has a clown
To create all the fun.
So every class has sponsors
That leads them to fame,
And makes the class worthy
To be called by their name.
Our class had two sponsors—
The very best in the world, too—
So the Class of '35 takes pleasure
In dedicating this book to you,

MAXINE ELEANOR TAYLOR

CLASS SONG

Words— NANCY PARHAM

*Music—*MARGARET CANDLER AND ALICE HARRISON

O Seniors, let us join in chorus
For we're the happiest class alive;
Let us sing the loyal praises
Of the class of '35.
We'll look back in the fond tomorrow
On the days spent together here;
There's been a joy for every sorrow,
And a smile for every tear.

CHORUS

We'll always love our Alma Mater
And ever praise her name;
With her we leave our burning hope
For glory, honor, fame.

As classmates, we've lived our lives together
And all too soon these days must end.
We must leave our Alma Mater,
Our beloved and cherished friend.
As the time draws near for our parting,
Let's make the goal for which we strive
Successful, virtuous, happy lives
For the Class of '35.

NANCY JEAN HIGHT, Mascot

*A more suitable mascot
Ne'er will there be seen
Nor a prettier one
Than our little Nancy Jean.*

ROY BRADFORD, JR., Mascot

*Born to be a king
He's just that smart.
A mascot we hold
Dearest to our heart.*

MAXINE ELEANOR TAYLOR, Sponsor

*Take the sweetest flowers to be found
Take the rarest gems from their nest
Combine them to make a golden crown
And there you have, the sweetest and best.*

SIDNEY MELVIN CROWDER, Sponsor

*Pearls are no more valuable
Diamonds are no more rare,
Nor is anyone more congenial
Nor anyone near as square.*

'33 Declamation Medal; Golf Team; '34 Class Treasurer; Marshal; Class Play; Golf Team; Debating Team; '35 Class Play; "Barks" Staff, Editor; Golf Team; Junior Kiwanian; Prophet.

*Here's a type of person,
To be looked upon
As a reliant standby,
When the game's to be won.*

FLANNAGAN, EFFIE LOUISE

'32 Glee Club; '33 Dramatic Club; Dramatic Club Play; Junior-Senior Banquet, Waitress; '34 Dramatic Club; Class Play; Chemistry Club; Commencement Marshal; '35 Dramatic Club, President; Class Play; Prettiest; N. C. State Contest Play; "Bulldog", business staff.

*She rightly deserves being
The prettiest in her class;
A beautiful rose in bloom
Reminds you of this lass.*

WORTHAM, TURNER JONES

'33 Golf, Varsity; '34 Football; Golf, Varsity; '35 Football; Golf, Varsity; Class Play, Usher; Laziest.

*He may be the laziest
In his actions around,
But in golf and football
These accusations are "unfounded."*

PEACE, ANN ARENDELL

ball; Basketball; Baseball; '34 Class Play, Chief
Usher; Football, Varsity; '35 Glee Club Operetta; Football, Varsity; Basketball, Varsity; Tennis Team.

*Although not voted
He's what we call
The second choice
For best of them all.*

HAMLET, MARY LEE

'31 Glee Club; '33 Dramatic Club; '35 Orchestra.

*Near the last of school
We thought her gone for life,
But she came back
Not alone, but as wife.*

PARHAM, THOMAS BENTON, JR.

'35 Boys' Glee Club; Mixed Chorus; Glee Club Operetta.

*We can't understand
Why he waited so long;
The Glee Club needed him
He knew he was wrong.*

DUNN, JEANNE

'32 Glee Club; '33 Glee Club; Glee Club Operetta; '34 Glee Club; Class Play; Mixed Chorus; Chemistry Club; '35 Glee Club, Librarian; Mixed Chorus, Secretary; Glee Club Operetta; Commencement Speaker.

*A signer by birth,
A singer by will,
A singer forever
And a singer still.*

EDWARDS, JAMES RUDD

'31 Baseball; '32 Baseball; Football; '33 Baseball, Varsity; Football, Varsity; Basketball, Varsity; '35 Basketball, Varsity.

*As for athletics
He had 'em galore,
Hardly anyone in school
Has as many or more.*

WILLIAMS, MARY FRANCES

'33 Junior-Senior Banquet, Waitress; '34 Chemistry Club.

*Although talkative
She has an excuse—
Merely a gifted charm
But a little overuse!*

MURRELL, JAMES HOLCOMB, JR.

'33 Basketball; '34 Basketball; Baseball Varsity; '35 Basketball; Boys' Glee Club; Mixed Chorus; Glee Club Operetta.

*A perfect sport
A gentleman too.
Always on hand
When there's work to do.*

CANDLER, MARGARET HARRIS

'32 Glee Club; '33 Junior-Senior Banquet, Waitress; '35 Glee Club; Glee Club Operetta; Class Song, Music.

*A good singer
As you can see.
A better "pianoress"—
What more need be?*

LEGG, MILTON FRANKLIN, JR.

'33 Football; Golf; Junior-Senior Banquet, Waiter; '34 Football; Golf; '35 Football; Golf; Class Play, Chief Usher; Best-looking; Commencement Speaker.

*No sarcasm was meant
When we said best-looking.
He's pretty good, too
When it comes to booking!*

POLSTON, RUBY CAROLYN

'32 Glee Club; '33 Junior-Senior Banquet, Waitress.

*A possessor of charms
Only given to a few
Sweet, pretty, lovable,
And likeable too.*

POWELL, WILLIAM JEFFERSON

'34 Chemistry Club; '35 Class Play; Glee Club Operetta; Tennis Team, Treasurer; Editor-in-Chief, "Bull Dog"; Class Testator; "Barks" Staff; Most Original.

*His humor and originality
Result from his being so wise.
But earthly things can never be judged
According to their size.*

WIGGINS, DOROTHY MARIE

'32 Basketball; '33 Basketball; Dramatic Club; '34 Dramatic Club, Secretary; Dramatic Club Play, Usher; Class Play, Usher; '35 Dramatic Club.

*Truly a sport,
Undoubtedly a pal.
Certainly a friend,
A very likeable gal.*

HIGHT, CLYDE STERLING

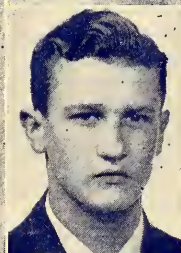

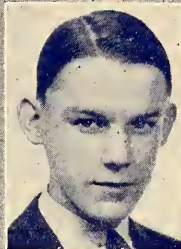

'35 Basketball; Class Play; Boy's Glee Club; Mixed Chorus; Eagle Scout.

*Three years in silence
One in delight.
All his talents in '35
Are brought to light.*

HESTER, JUANITA

'32 Basketball, Varsity; Declamation-Recitation Contest; '33 Dramatic Club, Sec. and Treas.; Basketball, Varsity; '34 Basketball; '35 Class Play, Usher.

*If "variety is
The spice of life"
Juanita will get by
Without any strife.*

SHAW, ELLIOT GILFORD, JR.

'33 Basketball; '34 Class Play; "Barks" Staff;
Mixed Chorus; Chemistry Club; '35 Boy's Glee
Club; Mixed Chorus; Glee Club Operetta; Most Conceited; Biggest Pest; Biggest Bluff.

*As for the last three
They were all in fun.
However, I'm sure he's able
To recognize a pun.*

FLOWERS, CORA LOUISE

'32 and '33 John Graham High School, Warrenton

*Having only lived
Two years in our town,
We feel that we're losing
Something we just found.*

DIXON, EDWARD HOPE, JR

'33 Baseball; '34 Baseball; '35 Class Play,
Usher.

*I'd never found out
The origin of your name, "Do",
Until you began using
The ability in you.*

DUNKLEY, MARY BETTY

*A friend indeed
But that isn't all!
When there's work to do
She always answers the call.*

ELLIS, WILSON HAMIT

'32 Baseball; '33 Dramatic Club.

*A gift of silence
Is a charm
That stops trouble,
And brings no harm.*

MOSLEY, FANNY WILLIAMS

*Not very talkative
In fact never overloud;
But regardless of the fact
She's the best in her crowd.*

WATKINS, MEREDITH McCULLY

'33 Dramatic Club; '34 Dramatic Club Play;
'35 Dramatic Club; Commencement Speaker.

*Maybe an actor,
Perhaps a playwright;
It'd be hard to say
Which is his plight.*

SHEPHERD, MOLLIE CHANDLER

'33 Dramatic Club.

*Sweet and kind
But quiet as a mouse—
At least she is
In the school house.*

EASON, OREN THOMAS

'32 Baseball; '34 Baseball, Varsity.

*Perhaps baseball
Is his chief desire;
It certainly should be
Because he's sure fire.*

ELLINGTON, MARIE VeSUVIA

'33 Dramatic Club.

*Not at all lazy
But industrious and gay;
Not many of us
Have this same sweet way.*

MAY, LESLIE TROY

'33 Football; Basketball; '34 Football, Varsity;
Basketball, Varsity; '35 Basketball.

*If at first he didn't succeed
He tried and tried again;
And now I'm sure he realizes
His effort weren't in vain.*

BOWLING, FANNIE

'33 Dramatic Club; Basketball.

*Fannie has a quite
Sweet, contemplative way
That can't help but be liked;
No doubt it will pay.*

STAINBACK, PAUL JONES

'31 Baseball; '32 Baseball.

*It's easy to say
That without a doubt,
The class would fail
Unless he is about.*

WOODLIEF, MARGARET AUGUSTA

'32 Basketball; '33 Basketball; '34 Basketball;
'35 Chemistry Club.

*When it comes to basketball
Margaret's the top;
When she starts playing
The rest better stop.*

KELLEY, WALLACE SNEAD

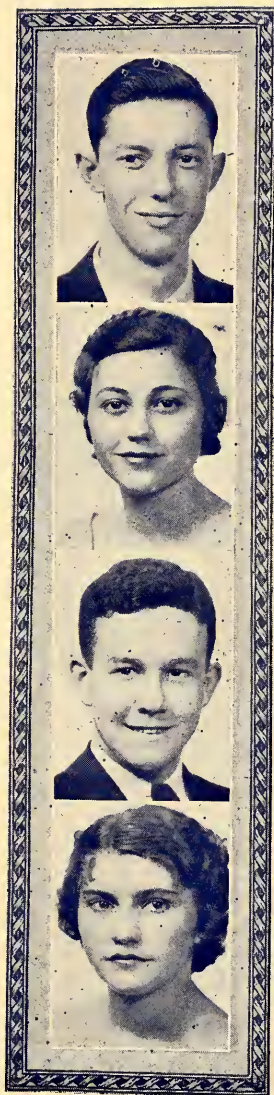

'35 Class Play, Stage Manager.

*Studious, gay and happy
Congenial and warm;
I wonder how many others
Possess this desirable charm.*

HESTER, VIRGINIA BLANCHE

'33 Dramatic Club.

*Blanche is O. K.,
I'm telling you.
You should know her
As the rest of us do.*

DU PRIEST, ELDEN LEROY

'32 High School Band; Declamation Contest;
'33 High School Band; High School Orchestra;
Declamation Medal; '34 High School Orchestra.

*Here's a chance
For some great band
To obtain a genius
While he's still on hand.*

TUCKER, MILDRED GERTRUDE

'34 Class Play, Usher; '35 Class Play, Usher.

*Yawzah, yawzah
An usher I said;
But in years to come
She'll be an actor instead.*

BECKHAM, CHARLES EDWARD

'32 Football; '33 Football, Varsity; Tennis Club; Glee Club; '34 Football, Varsity; Basketball; Tennis Team, Captain; Class Play, Usher; Glee Club; '35 Football, Varsity; Basketball, Varsity; Tennis Team, Captain; Class Play; Glee Club operetta; Boys' Glee Club; Mixed Chorus.

*An Ellsworth Vines
When it comes to tennis,
But in studies
It's the finish.*

CARTER, LULA SARAH

Pinehurst, N. C.; '32 Dramatic Club; Glee Club; Class Play; Cheer Leader; Basketball.

*Active away
If not here,
Very likeable
A regular "deah".*

TURNER, ELVIE MORRIS

'31 Football; '32 Football; '35 Football, Varsity; '34 Football, Varsity; Chemistry Club.

*Another footballer
Not bad either.
A coward or drawback—
He's certainly neither.*

BRANCHE, RUTH PETERSON

'33 Dramatic Club; Dramatic Club Play; Basketball; '34 Dramatic Club; Dramatic Club Play; Basketball; Chemistry Club; '35 Dramatic Club; Basketball.

*My goodness, Look here
Do you see what I see?
Not all of us are good actors
Only the best can be.*

KNIGHT, LEONA

*If silence is golden
Or even glass
She's probably the wealthiest
Member of our class.*

CLOPTON, JESSIE ELOWEENF

'32 Basketball; '33 Dramatic Club.

*Not overactive
Possibly just right,
At least she is
In our sight.*

ELLINGTON, ADA BELLE

'32 Glee Club.

*One year of singing
And then to stop
Like crossing a stream
And forgetting to hop.*

BEARD, MARY ELIZABETH

'33 Dramatic Club.

*One year of acting
And then to cease
Like tying a dog
Without using a lease.*

CARROLL, MARY BAXTER

'32 Basketball; '33 Dramatic Club; Basketball; '34 Dramatic Club; Basketball, Varsity; Chemistry Club; '35 Dumbest.

*When it comes to talking
She has all the art,
Why even Joe Penner
Had much the same start!*

HAGWOOD, RUBY MAE

'32 Basketball; '33 Basketball; Declamation Recitation Contest; '34 Basketball.

*Maybe not as good
In reciting as some are
But as for basketball
She's the best by far.*

HAMLET, CORA EDALINE

*As the time draws near
For Cora to part
It's like losing an old friend,
With us from the start.*

PARRISH, TEMPY RUTH

*Another case of silence
But this time for the best,
Because this makes her
Much better than the rest.*

COOPER, ALMA LEE

'32 Basketball.

*Playing basketball
She sure could prance.
She stopped early
To give others a chance.*

REAVIS, MARGARET HELENA

*Boisterous? Certainly not!
Silent? A bad bet!
Just a blend of these
And you have Margaret.*

MURRAY, EVELYN

*Not too silent
An excellent sport
One of the best
Of any sort.*

LOWRY, VIRGINIA PERSHING

'35 High School Orchestra; Class Play, Master of Ceremonies.

*A dancer, a musician
Most everything.
And that's not all
She even can sing.*

WORTHAM, BLANCHE

*Blanche is a girl
To be adored,
Abide with her
And never be bored.*

CLASS HISTORY 1935

NANCY PARIHAM, Historian

Four years ago, and as green as grass
A proud group entered the Freshman Class.
They numbered one hundred and forty-two,
And received all the taunts the Freshmen do.
It didn't take long for the threats to be o'er.
And the dumb, green freshmen were no more,
For we soon learned to obey the rule
And become a real part of the school.
We held our first class meeting, a jolly affair,
And a sponsor as we chose is very rare.
For "Doc" Crowder started us on our way
And landed us safely where we are today.
The rest of the year passed all too soon,
And it wasn't long 'til the month of June.
We were no longer Freshmen, but Sophomores glad
For we could tease the Freshman lad.
We worked for our school, took part in her games,
Loyalty, honor, and praise were our aims,
H. H. S. took first place in our hearts
And for her each Sophomore did his part.
Our number has decreased to one hundred nine,
But we worked together and results were fine,
Miss Bethea, our Sponsor, helped us rise—
Her advise and counsel was always wise.
Our Junior year proved to be grand,
One hundred two—a happy band;
Miss Kyle and Mr. Latham led us that year
Their struggles for us were very dear.
We gave our play which we thought wasn't bad,
When it was over, we were very glad.
For we were rich as kings and queens
And with our money, we would buy many things.

We all became "Dutchy", and there came a chance,
So one night we gave the Seniors a dance,
There were windmills, tulips, and Dutch scenes gay
As a farewell to those who were going away.
But hark! Then came the best of all years,—
We are Seniors and parting time nears;
But loads of good times together we share
With never a worry and never a care.
We're seventy-five happy Seniors with Sponsors grand
They're always ready, with a helping hand.
To Miss Taylor and "Doc" praise is due
For our success we owe to you.
We gave our party at Hallowee'n
And our Senior play was a "roaring" scream.
We had lots of fun as together we worked
By no boy or girl were duties shirked.
We went to the banquet the Juniors gave
We had a good time and about it did rave.
Although we were happy we were also sad
To think of leaving seemed so bad.
And after four years of work and fun,
To the day of graduation we have come;
We must say "adieu" to Alma Mater, dear,
And wish her luck, and give her a cheer.
Here's to her memory, her honor, her fame,
And may her glory never wane,
But by other classes be kept alive!
Best wishes from the Class of '35.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of Henderson, North Carolina, in the year 1935, do leave the following will. Its contents to be unknown until the death of the Senior Class of 1935.

SECTION I

1. To E. M. Rollins, superintendent of all schools,
A settlement for a new high school before it cools.
2. To the faculty of the new Henderson High,
A quiet student body that will not cause a sigh.

SECTION II

1. To the oncoming Seniors as a body or class,
The dignity of the graduates who drew their pass.
2. To Frances Harrison who led them in thirty-five,
The ability to keep them, in thirty-six, as much alive.
3. To Jimmy Cooper, the golf crazed member
The ability of Frank Legg, the best-looking remember.
4. To Havwood Phillips, the leadership of "Bry",
His real name's Bill Bryan or used to be.
5. To E. V. Bunn, treasurer this year,
The dignity of Alma Parham, who was a dear.
6. To Mary Sills Petty who talked her way to fame,
The prettiness of Effie Flannagan who did the same.
7. To Betty Knott, probably the funniest in her class,
The wittiness of J. W. Rose; he'll still surpass.
8. To Mary Elizabeth Poythress, a very popular girl,
The rating of Ann Peace in the social whirl.

SECTION III

1. To the oncoming Juniors we leave in our Will,
The consoling patience as they have two years still.
2. To Mabel Parham, who is many a boy's fancy,
The ability to dress as well as her sister Nancy!
3. To Scott Cooper and to his brother Hill,
The football ability of Roscoe Stainback, the best, still.
4. To Jean Rowland, the flippant sophomore girl,
The "influentiality" of Mary Baity, rare as a pearl.
5. To Charles Cooper, the very conceited lad,
The conceit of E. G. Shaw,—don't get mad.
6. To Eugene Patterson, who led the class,
The ability of Ransom Duke to catch a lass.
7. To Billy Vaughn who is as tall as a tree,
The manliness of Tom Parham,—how much does this be?
8. To Billy Dunn, one of the smaller boys,
A big box of candy and a house full of toys.

SECTION IV

1. To Malone Parham, that which I know he'll hate,
The editorship of the "Barks", just before he graduates.
2. To Henry Mangum, a mischievous little pest,
The laziness of Turner Wortham, in laziness at his best.
3. To Miriam Pinnell, who could out talk a mob,
The talkativeness of Mary F. Williams, who could do an even better job.
4. To Katherine Newton, who evidently is a poet,
The poetical ability of Fred Hecht, who doesn't know it.
5. To Billy Dennis, you're right, the editor's son,
The ortalical ability of Ellard Yow; many a debate he's won.
6. To Margaret Farris, who can dance up a storm,
The dancing ability of Hodge Newell, when he's up to his form.
7. To Thad Harris, probably the loudest they had,
The singing ability of Al Wester, and he's not bad.
8. To Billy Alston, a pretty good player, I vow,
The tennis ability of Ed Beckham, who's a wow.

SECTION V

1. To the High School student body as a whole,
We leave you our friendship, body and soul.
2. To Henry, who proved to be our truest friend,
An automatic bell to put his worries at end.
3. To the school itself, an unconquerable shrine,
We leave many a tear for the good times of "Auld Lang Syne".

Signed and sealed on this the 21st of May in the year nineteen thirty-five

WILLIAM JEFFERSON POWELL, Testator.

Kermit Clayton, he said, was then representing Vance County in the North Carolina legislature and was rapidly becoming outstanding. Bill took me over to the law firm of Eason, Stainback, and Edwards; none of the lawyers were, in however, so I had to be satisfied with talking a few minutes to their secretaries Jessie Clopton, Margaret Woodlief and Lecta Stone. While there, Leslie May came to see Paul Stainback on business but Leslie seemed worried and did not recognize me. After he left, Lecta told me that he had married Lucille Hamm and was operating a large truck hauling business, and had been having a pretty tough time lately.

Bill and I went over to see the chief of Police, J. W. Rose, and J. W., good sport that he was, offered to show me over the city the next day.

The following morning while on my down town from my hotel I noticed an airplane field with a large sign over the entrance—"U-Fly-It Airplane Co." owned and operated by Hodge Newell. Going a little further down the street I saw a well kept, prosperous looking lumber yard; J. W. told me that Meredith Watkins was rapidly making money there. Before reaching the main section of town, we stopped by Tennie Hardee's florist shop and got a rose bud for our coats. We then went down to one of the Pender's stores and talked to Elden Du Priest, its manager. Our next stop was the offices of Milady Beauty Shops, a large chain of beauty shops owned by Carolyn Polston. I learned from Carolyn that she had Mary Frances Williams, Blanche Wertham, and Mary Betty Dunkley operating shops for her in Durham, Greensboro and Charlotte, respectively. Under the offices of the company I noticed a great rumbling. It came from the Modiste Shoppe, a very exclusive ladies ready to wear store which was operated by Mary Mitchell Baity. Visiting it, I saw Erma Hicks modeling a gorgeous black velvet evening gown and Fannie Bowling a green plaid sport suit. I recognized also Ruth Branch and Mary Carroll, who were clerks in this store.

I then found myself facing the largest building in town; judging from the signs; it turned out to be Rose's 5 & 10c store. On the side of the building were several office entrances and over one of them I read this sign, "Wallace Kelly, Chief Accountant."

We passed through the business and professional women's building and I observed these signs on the doors: "Anne Mills, Interior Decorator", "Jeanne Dunn, Portrait Painting", "Piano Lessons for Advanced Pupils, Margaret Candler, Instructor", and "Classes In All Kinds Of Dancing, Tom Parham and Virginia Lowry."

We took lunch and then drove out to the Hospital, three miles on the Richmond highway. While there I had a long conversation with Dr. Dorothy Wiggins, nurses Evelyn Murray and Juanita Hester and welfare worker Lucille Basket.

On the way back to town we stopped at J. W.'s tennis club and played several games. Fred Hecht, the tennis professional, helped me considerably with my backhand stroke. We ate supper at the club and, upon my complimenting the meal, he told me that Mildred Tucker was the dietician there.

As soon as we got down town, J. W. had to go to the library to look up some information and I went with him. While he was busy I talked to Nancy Parham, the librarian, about the phenomenal growth of the town. I found out from her that Ruth Parrish and Elizabeth Beard were writing a book on this subject. After J. W. finished his work he went home, but I went to the picture show. I was very much surprised to find so much home talent on the screen. Louise Flowers and Alice Harrison starred in the picture while the costumes were designed by Ruby Mae Hagwood. A special feature dance was given by Mary Lee Hamlet.

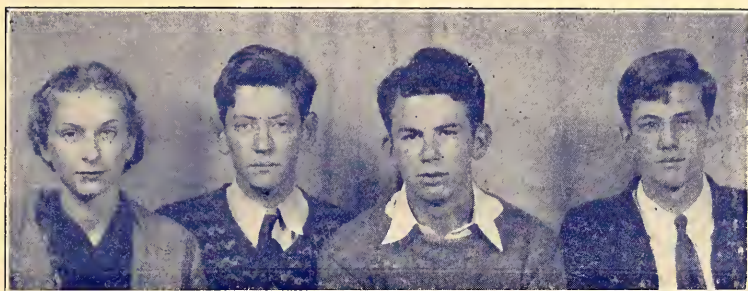

The next morning while wandering around I came across the magnificent high school. This building was so much larger and better equipped than the one which was proposed when I graduated and the one in which I had wished so much to go to school, that I could hardly believe that it was the same building although it had had about a half more added since its original planning. I went in to the building and talked to the principal, Miss Margaret Reavis, and the Latin teacher, Miss Fannie Mosley. From them I learned that the pupils were now offered courses in shorthand, typing, economics, domestic science and other useful arts, also that the very latest methods of teaching were used.

On my way back to the hotel I stopped by the courthouse and listened for a very few minutes to a case Judge Donald Evans was trying. It seemed that Effie Flannagan was being tried for running into farmer Hamit Ellis. At the time of the accident she was trying to wave to Reverend Ellard Yow and turn a corner at the same time. Hasn't she learned to do that yet?

That night after thinking of my trip I discovered that I had seen or heard from all of my old schoolmates of the class of 1935 and having thus satisfied my desire, I returned to Honolulu to continue my own peaceful life.

In the truest sense, their overhead and operating expense represents an investment in a greater future for our community. They help to make and keep Henderson sound from within. By so doing, they make the city more attractive to the stranger in search of a home for his family and to the business executive who seeks a suitable location.
